Do you have judgmental people in your life? Are you afraid to make mistakes or do you beat yourself up if you do? Do you carry blame, shame, disappointment? Do you notice the flaws and imperfections of people, places, and/or situations? If so, then this workshop is just what the doctor ordered! Mind you, it is not for sissies...you must be courageous to face yourself, your old beliefs, and old patterns of behavior. Yet, no single lesson will make a greater impact on the quality of your life. This 21st century germ destroys more lives than all diseases combined. As life intensifies the need for love and to get along with others increases, humanity's current judgmental behavior stands as an enormous wall between harmony and conflict, acceptance and rejection, and spells the difference between war and peace...personally, professionally, and planetarily! This fun and engaging workshop will rip the mask off judgment and help you learn to choose healthier alternatives so you can live the life of mastery you were destined to enjoy!

This amazing workshop allows you to...

- Free yourself to love and be loved and learn the techniques to accept yourself just the way you are.
- Master steps to transform judgments and release your inhibitions and grow in unimaginable ways.
- Realize the negative impact of judgment on your life.
- Provide a safe and open environment to work through your 'human stuff'.
- Experience the joy of being emotionally intimate and release the emotional pain of judgment.
